Copy of letter from the District Judge, South Kanara, Dis.4093, dated the 31st October 1924, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras.

The Shorthand writer of this Court having been retired from the service, I have appointed T.C. Anantha Iyer, shorthand typist of the local Subordinate Judge's Court as shorthand writer of this Court with effect from the forenoon of this day. As typist of the Sub Court, Anantha Iyer was drawing with the sanction of the Government a special pay of Rs.10/- per mensem sanctioned in G.O.No.1054 Financial dated 20th October 1921 in view of the Advanced qualifications in typewriting (A) possessed by him. Neither the typist nor any other clerk in this Court draws special pay at present as none of them possesses the requisite qualification. As Anantha Iyer will be actually engaged in typewriting work every day, and as he is fully qualified in typewriting, I have the honour to request that Government may be moved to sanction the special pay to him as typist clerk of this Court.

Special pay. - ~~Mr~~ T.C. Ananta Ayyar, Shorthand writer, District Court, South Kanara - typewriting allowance of Rs.10 per mensem.

A draft order sanctioning the grant of an allowance of Rs.10 per mensem for advanced qualifications in typewriting to T.C. Ananta Ayyar, Shorthand writer, District Court, South Kanara, is submitted for approval.

2. The High Court requests that the order may take effect from the ~~date~~ 3rd October 1924, the date of his transfer to that court from the Sub-Court, Mangalore. It is, however, usual to sanction allowances only from the date of the order. The ~~effect~~ ^{fact} that the same incumbent was drawing the allowance in another court does not alter the position.
